LITERARY PRIZE FOR DYING POET.

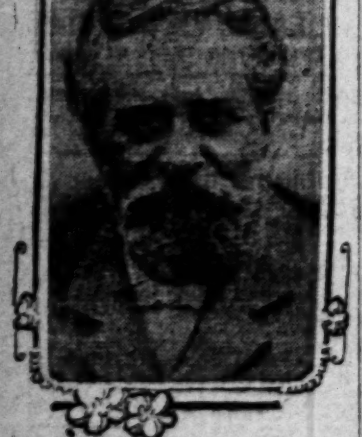

Money Comes Too Late to Be of Service to Noted Literateur.

Giovanna Carducci, the Most Famous of Italy's Songsters, Learns That He Is to Receive Forty Thousand Dollars—Will Enable Him to Make Provision for His Grandchildren, to Whom He Is Devoted.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

ROME, Nov. 17.—Too late to be of service to him, comes the award of the Nobel literary prize of $40,000 to Giovanni Carducci, the famous Italian poet. The old man is breaking up. Even the most optimistic of his friends hardly expect him to survive more than a few months.

All his life Carducci has been a poor man. The professorship of literature which he held for forty-five years in the University of Bologna brought him in but a modest salary—merely sufficient to supply his daily needs. His services brought him fame, but little money. When ill health compelled him to resign his post at the university, a few years ago, he would have been reduced to absolute want had not the Italian government bestowed a pension of $3400 a year upon him.

But the prize will enable him to make some provision for his family and that will be a source of the greatest satisfaction to him. He has two married daughters and seven grandchildren, to whom he is devoted. So much did his inability to pay for anything for them prey upon his mind that a few years ago he proposed to sell his really excellent library for their benefit.

Head of this, Queen Margherita bought it outright for a generous sum on the condition that he should retain possession of it for the rest of his days. At the same time she bought him a house and insisted that he should occupy it rent free. From no other source could he have expected such a gift. But he worships Queen Margherita. It was she who converted him from an ardent Republican and the poet of Italy's struggle for independence to monarchism.

His change of political faith bore fruit in one of the finest of his poems, "Eterno Femmineo Regale," which he addressed to her. It aroused great indignation among the Republican admirers and subjected his popularity to a severe test, but he stuck to his new creed and even the Republican admirers gave way to outbursts of wrath on slight provocation, but his anger is like that of a child—short-lived—and he never bears malice. He hates being made a lion of and cannot endure being stared at. Autograph hunters are his pet aversion. He is a man of moods and strangely susceptible to climatic influences. On one black wintry day on his way to the university, he slipped and fell, and when he reached the lecture hall, was in one of his worst humors. He was the subject of his lecture. But he had only spoken a few words when he suddenly stopped, picked up a book and exclaimed: "To the devil with Petrarch and all the others while this weather lasts. I shall stay at home. The weather lasted for a month and for a month Carducci stayed away from the university."

It has been suggested that Carducci should be awarded the Collar of the Annunziata, which is the highest decoration in Italy, and confers royal rank. The whole nation would applaud the bestowal of such an honor on the beloved poet, but there is an obstacle which seems insurmountable. The arts and letters have no place in the hierarchy of the order. The Collar of the Annunziata is awarded, Italian poets, authors, artists, and statesmen, but no one is barred from receiving it. Because of this, Carducci did not wish it.

THE FIFTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

CLOSING SESSION.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—HOUSE: The House, after an hour of session today, passed a bill providing for the protection of labor and industries from the competition of convict labor.

The bill amends the Wilson act in relation to the regulation of interstate commerce, and gives the Federal Trade Commission authority to issue orders to restrain convict-made goods.

Efforts to take up the bill conferring citizenship on the citizens of Porto Rico, reported to the Committee on Insular Affairs of the House, were defeated by objections by the Democrats.

At 5 o'clock today the House adjourned until Monday, having during the legislative session, passed several bills.

The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill was made an special order for Monday, no day having been fixed for the vote on it.

During the three hours the House was in session it passed a bill which has the enthusiastic endorsement of labor, as well as manufacturing interests, repealing that portion of the Wilson Interstate Commerce Bill relating to convict-made goods and permitting the Federal Trade Commission to regulate themselves as to their competition with "free labor" made goods.

STATE SOVEREIGNTY.

The sovereignty of the State was the subject of a heated debate in the House, growing out of the consideration of the bill to establish a game preserve in the Olympic forest reserve in the State of Washington. The bill was passed without being opposed.

Mr. Mundell of Wyoming insisted that the Supreme Court had ruled that the State is sovereign over its birds, game and fishes, and that to create such a game preserve and place it under National supervision was clearly an invasion of the rights of a sovereign State.

Mr. Leamy of Iowa, in charge of the measure, told of the President's interest in the matter, and said the creation of such a game preserve meant the preservation of the last herd of elk on the Pacific Coast, some 200 of the splendid specimens.

LEGISLATIVE BILL.

The Legislative Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill for 1935 carried $85,943 less than the estimate. The appropriation for one current fiscal year was $80,169.10. The entire number of salaries carried in the bill is 14,777, or 593 less than included in the estimate and represents a decrease of $200,000 for the current year.

An increase from $1200 to $1400 is made in the allowance to members of the House for clerk hire, and the requirement that members who have spent this amount is omitted. The appropriation for miscellaneous expenses for the Senate is cut from $100,000 to $90,000. The salary of the secretary to the Speaker is increased from $2000 to $2400.

OPPOSE PORTO RICANS.

BILL OUT OF PLACE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The Democrats in the House today opposed the consideration of the bill conferring United States citizenship on the inhabitants of Porto Rico.

Chairman Cooper of Wisconsin, under the call of committees, called the attention of the House to the enormous position of the bill on the Senate calendar, insisting that its proper place was in the House calendar.

Mr. Clark of Missouri, leading the minority, objected to its transfer, but Speaker Calkins, who presided, said that it properly belongs on the House calendar, which would give it a different status on the Senate calendar. The chairman of the Committee on Insular Affairs attempted to have it called up for consideration. Again Mr. Clark suggested, insisting that the House had a right to have notice of

HIS PROMISES CALLED IDLE.

Loss' Company Plastered With Attachments.

Los Angeles Man Accused of Frenzied Finance.

Plans Network of Trolleys at Portland.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

PORTLAND (Ore.) Dec. 4.—The golden tinted dreams that a score or more of Portlanders have been cherishing for some time, dreams fostered by alleged roseate promises of Promoter C. E. Loss of Los Angeles, are slowly being shattered and dispelled into thin air. It is said that as soon as Loss returns to Portland he will find himself involved in a nice mess of legal entanglements.

The Portland investing public seems to have lost faith in the protestations of sincerity on the part of Mr. Loss. He has been prodigious of promise, but so parsimonious of performance, it is alleged, that serious inquiry has been made as to his ability to do even a small part of the things he is said to have promised.

He is said here to be the head and directing power of the United Railways Company, a concern which was to enter the local trolley field and solve all the harrassing problems which the traveling public has had to contend with for years past. It is no exaggeration to say that Loss's appearance in the Portland trolley field as a bidder for street railway franchises was heralded with loud acclaim, and he is said to have obtained a great deal of money from small investors.

Loss and his associates started the fireworks by announcing that they had purchased the magnificent Chamber of Commerce building, one of the most substantial structures in the city, worth something like $400,000.

"HOT AIR" IS ALLEGED.

The first inkling of the possible irresponsibility of the Loss outfit came when a syndicate of Seattle capitalists bought the building. Very shortly the Portland newspapers declared that Loss has been "hot airing" all the way through and that the franchises which he and his associate "millionaires" secured was worth the time it had taken to jam it through the City Council.

The United Railways Company is now tied up with a perfect plaster of attachments. Loss, it is claimed, has already been made defendant in suits amounting to $40,000 and $20,000 worth of additional legal squabbles have been instituted against his company.

Every stockholder in the Oregon Traction Company, an offshoot of the United Railways Company, is clamoring for his money. Those who are most heavily involved are getting in the line of the Japanese situation and they are pooling interests and will leave their cases in the hands of L. Y. Keady, who is handling the prosecution of the case against Loss and his associates.

OTHER PROMOTERS DISCOUNTED.

Loss has discounted the efforts of all Los Angeles promoters, and there are many endeavoring to invade northwestern territory, and Mr. Keady, who says he will expose the Californian's methods of operation, as questionable, has issued the following statement: "All who have invested in Loss's companies in the Northwest: 'I am about to bring an action against the United Railways Company for the money due me for my stock in the Oregon Traction Company. If you will assign me your claims against the company I will include it in my action and save a multiplicity of actions.'

In order to boost the game, it is claimed, the Loss people organized the Atlas Construction Company, which was supposed to carry out the actual work under the terms of the extensive franchises granted for the railroad, Multnomah, and adjoining counties, for the Loss plans involved a network of trolley car systems throughout the whole country in the vicinity of Portland. But a month ago the Atlas Construction Company failed financially, and was bought up. It was said by the United Railways Company for $100,000. At least these are the figures which the United Railways people gave out.

STOCKHOLDERS WANT MONEY.

Claiming to have seen none of the money reported to have changed hands in the transaction, the stockholders expressed a desire to secure the money invested in the stock. In doing this, it is promised that the company will be established that will make high finance on Wall Street pale into insignificance.

Though the United Railways was transferred by the original stockholders to the C. E. Loss Company for $400,000 in bonds, it is stated that the property and franchises of the concern have been offered for sale for $50,000, without takers.

The United Railways is said to have been offered to practically every interested in the Northwest that might have use for it, but no interests in this section appears to want it.

Mr. Loss is accused of playing a high-handed game in the Northwest and for this reason Portland people are not anxious to invest money in his company.

W. P. STRANDBERG.

The Reichstag at Berlin, yesterday discussed the Algebrax convention, at the conclusion of the debate the bill ratifying the convention passed its first and second readings.

MILLIONS IN CHINA STARVE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—A serious famine affecting millions of people prevails throughout Central China, according to a cable message received at the State Department today from Shanghai. The dispatch states that relief committees consisting of the various consuls-general, local Chinese officials and business men have been appointed to deal with the situation.

is the only way to abolish divorce and to solve that problem."

Mrs. Reiser says in conclusion that she thought no family was complete until it had two children, but she failed to give any explanation as to what would become of the children should the parents after five years of wedded life decide to separate.

Retrospect under the sanction of the family physician, not trial marriage, is the idea advanced by Mrs. Lucy B. Thwing, a scholarly Philadelphian, to counter the remarkable views set forth by Mrs. Elsie Clews Parsons of New York in her recent work, "The Family."

Mrs. Thwing, who is the wife of Prof. Charles Harton Thwing, an eminent physician, regards Mrs. Parsons' remedy as impracticable. From a long experience with the matter of divorce, she has decided that the betrothal should be a much more solemn arrangement than at present, and that it should be subject to "ratification" by a physician, just as the marriage ceremony proper is by a magistrate or clergyman, she writes.

"Somehow," she writes, "to remind Mrs. Parsons and the bishops who feel agitated about her book that all marriages well provided for, but we call it betrothal."

Enough to make the betrothal as fully serviceable as it should be in many ways, but the people are too much discouraged a ring as a symbol of a definite sort of relation, and make all sorts of preparations for the more binding ceremony—except, perhaps, the most essential preparation, the solemn and careful inquiry, by both parties, into their mutual fitness for marriage.

The doctor of medicine is as fit and fully qualified to bless the betrothal as the doctor of divinity is suitable for the marriage proper. If I left the matter to the doctor of divinity, I would be better to consult both.

Most of us believe in our hearts that the church teaches that divorce, once a person is married, is impossible. It is a fact that there are no more twin, but one flesh.

Because this is true, it must be admitted that the people are too much discouraged a ring as a symbol of a definite sort of relation, and make all sorts of preparations for the more binding ceremony—except, perhaps, the most essential preparation, the solemn and careful inquiry, by both parties, into their mutual fitness for marriage.

NOT A TREATY PROPOSITION.

State Officials Are Denying Deal With Japan.

Californians Forcing Hand of Chief Executive.

Hope to Keep Negotiations Out of Congress.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—"There is absolutely nothing in it," said Senator Bacon, chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, on receiving from a visitor to the State Department, when asked what he thought about a proposed new treaty with Japan.

Secretary Root and Viscount Aoki, Japanese ambassador, have been talking about such a treaty in connection, and a high official of the Department who is in a position to know all that transpires in its official relations, is confident that there is nothing of the kind has ever been thought of.

Senator Bacon, who has been credited with having been assigned to the task of preparing such a treaty, said: "It is all conjecture. I am absolutely nothing tending to form the report of any such treaty negotiations."

Secretary of State Bacon said that a statement on behalf of President that no steps of any kind had been taken in connection with a view to the negotiation of a new treaty with Japan for the purpose of Japan's withdrawal from the League of Nations, and that the President had no intention of making such a statement.

KNOCKS WALSH
OUT IN EIGHTH.

Abel Attell Remains Champion Featherweight.

Boston Boy Outclassed but Game to Core.

Terrible Turk Proves Match for George Brown.

Abel Attell remains champion featherweight. He knocked out Walsh in the eighth round last night, after beating Jimmy the way, and in reality outclassing the game little Massachusetts man. Walsh never had a show to win, and took a terrible beating, while the best he could do was to give Attell without hurting him.

In the middle of the eighth round, when Walsh apparently was all in, Manager Kevin threw a towel into the ring as a signal of defeat. Referee Burns had his back turned and did not see who threw the towel, and as Walsh stoutly protested against giving up and was backed by the crowd, Burns ordered the men to continue fighting.

The short respite did not help Walsh much, for Attell soon had him going from a shower of blows, and then landed a terrific left swing to the stomach and polished off the damage by crossing a light right to the jaw.

The stomach blow did the business. Walsh fell on his face and then rose to his knees with an awful look of agony on his countenance. He was unable to rise, and sank back on his haunches. Again Kevin directed the towel to be thrown, and to the late count was over jumped into the ring and acknowledged defeat. Walsh was carried to his corner, where his seconds applied restorative.

The battle was lost to Walsh in the very first round, when Attell all but had him out. Only for his experience to finish the job quickly, Attell would have crossed over the winning punch, but Walsh staggered about and covered up and stalled out the round.

Thereafter it was only a question of time when the fight would end and Attell was never in danger. He jabbed Walsh in the face at will, and crossed challenged Brown for a twenty-round contest, winner take all. Brown immediately accepted. Manager McCarey then announced that the battle would take place as a preliminary to the Kaufman-Gardner fight December 21. Young Battling Nelson proved no match for Willie Conroy in the first preliminary and went down and out from a punch on the jaw in the second round. The boy went down, however, and put up a good fight in the first round, but Conroy boxed him into submission and then shoved over the sleep position.

JEFFRIES TO REFEREE. Jeffries has consented to referee the Gans-Herman fight at Tempeh, New Year's Day. Eddie Keavin, manager of Jimmie Walsh, received a telegram from M. M. Riley, manager for the Casino Athletic Club, authorizing him to offer Jeff the job. The big champion said he would accept and negotiations and terms probably will be arranged next week.

Jim Flynn came up from San Diego last night to put a quietus to the report that he had "funked out" of his match with Sullivan, and incidentally to see the big fight. Jim says: "I never funk out of a match in my life and I never will. I did not believe I could do myself and the public justice by fighting December 21, for I could not have gotten into the condition by that time. I am willing to fight Sullivan but I want sufficient time to prepare for the battle. I have not been contemplating a fight with Billy Woods at San Diego, though the people down there did speak of the matter. As long as there are white men to fight I will not box negroes. I am ready to do business with Manager McCarey today."

SPORTS SHOCKED
BY LONG SHOTS.

FORTY-TO-ONE SLEEPER GRABS FIRST ASCOT RACE.

Bettors Have Fierce Session Trying to Separate the Right Ones from the Morning Glories—John Murray, Cof. Jack and Jettam Capture Their Races Impressively.

Three favorites and three longshots were kept in sports in consecutive chills and fevers yesterday at Ascot Park, and on the whole probably broke nearly even on the day. There was a large crowd present, but particular features were lacking, except the victory of the unheard of long shot, Pepper and Salt, in the first race. Jettam and John A. Murray made their first appearance on the local track, and each won his race in an impressive manner. It is said that

MATINEE IN THE HARNESS.

Good Programme Offered at Agricultural Park.

Many Flyers Names Are Seen in the Lists.

Public Is Cordially Invited to the Show.

This afternoon at Agricultural Park the first matinee of the season will be held by the Los Angeles Driving Club. This is the matinee that was postponed from Thanksgiving Day. Using as a criterion the large attendance on the opening matinees given by the Driving Club in previous years the crowd this afternoon should fill the capacious grandstand to overflowing.

The beautiful, warm weather of the last several days has worked wonders with the track and today it is lightning fast. Matinee records are predicted to go a-glimmering especially in some of the faster classes. Many of the horses received their final work-out yesterday and completed the circuit in time which showed them to be of the faster classes.

What promises to be the feature race of the day will be the 2:30 pace for the Henry Berry Cup. H. J. Myers's speedy little sorrel mare, Gladys M., which has won two legs of this cup already, is expected to carry away the honors and the remaining legs of the cup this afternoon.

Other good races should be the 2:20 trot and the 2:30 pace. The horses in these two races are evenly matched, and the winners will very likely have to step faster than 2:20 to capture these events.

What is planned to be the amusing event of the afternoon will be the Novelty Race. This should be a laughable and exciting as the past matinees.

The Driving Club officials announce that, all in all, this will be the best

SILVERWOOD'S

The Sensible Stores for Men's Gifts

Mothers, wives, sisters, sweethearts, they turn to the Silverwood stores for real sensible gifts for the men folks.

Shopping is so comfortable and convenient at Silverwood's—so many things that every man wants and appreciates—such freedom from trashy little nicknacks—and no unpleasant crowding.

If "his" gift bears the name Silverwood, "he" will compliment your good judgment.

Let us suggest—

Perhaps a smoking jacket, a bath robe, an auto cap, coat or gloves; or maybe a half dozen pairs of fancy hose, a well-made pair of suspenders in separate box, a silk or opera hat, a cravatette overcoat, a dozen handkerchiefs, a silk scarf or muffler. Then there are the thousand and one other little useful gifts you'll see as you look about the stores.

MILLER RIDES TWO WINNERS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—Jockey W. Miller had his first mount at Emeryville today on Fireball in the Germain Handicap. He rode a clever, skillful race, saving his horse for the final brush with Shotgun, the favorite. Shotgun at one stage looked like a winner, but Miller brought Fireball up and won by a length. Results:

Five furlongs, selling: Silver Line, 111 (A. Brown) 2 to 1; won; Jewel, 109 (Brussell) 10 to 1; second; Mrs. Matthews, 107 (Knap) 25 to 1; third; time 1:01 1/5. Convent Bell, Alta Spaulding, Miss Turtle, George Kilborn, Karolyi and Duke of Orleans also ran.

SEVERAL EXPELLED.

Horsemen Connected With the Memphis Gold Cup Incident Suffer Severely.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The board of review of the National Trotting Association closed its sessions here tonight and finally disposed of the cases of several persons connected with the Memphis gold cup incident.

It took up the temporary reinstatement of George W. Spear, the driver, after his expulsion several years ago, and again expelled Spear, under the rule relating to the "doping" of horses. This case was brought before the board on behalf of the National Trotting Association, on account of Spear's connection with the Smathers-Lou Dillon-Major Delmar incident at Memphis.

The board also expelled, under the same rule, Ed Saunders, the stable attendant, who stated that he had administered "dope" to Lou Dillon at the instance of George W. Spear. The case against Millard Saunders, brother of Ed Saunders, who, one of the witnesses declared, had administered a certain mixture to the mare, Lou Dillon, together with draughts of champagne at the Memphis race track, was continued.

The expulsion of Spear on the first count was that he pulled the horse Temple Bar on the grounds of the Cleveland Driving Park some years ago. He was then expelled and afterward reinstated.

The temporary reinstatement is withdrawn and the expulsion is imposed from this time on.

Orange High School Boys' Team to Meet the Boys from the High School of Fullerton.

This afternoon will see the second boys' basketball game in the Orange County League championship series. The Orange High School team will play against the Fullerton High School team at 2:30 o'clock on the Santa Ana grounds. The Orange boys have a very strong and speedy team and it is expected that they will be the winners, for they defeated the Santa Ana High School team on last Saturday by the decisive score of 19 to 2. The Orange boys will line up for the Saturday game as follows: Forward, Lightall and Fitzpatrick; center, Murray; guards, Prince, captain, and Kogier; substitute, Briggs and Hane.

over the right to the jaw at frequent intervals. He soon had Walsh's mouth and nose bleeding, and he battered the sore parts until, at the conclusion of each round, they were a mass of blood and lacerated flesh.

WALSH IS GAME.

Walsh was as game as a pebble, however, and stood up and tried to exchange blows with Attell. He was occasionally hit in some pretty punches, but they were not effective, because most of the steam had been taken out of Walsh in that fatal first round. When he did let go with a forceful swing, Attell was not there to receive it.

After the champion found out that Walsh could not hurt him, he occasionally threw himself wild, open and invited his opponent's blows in the hope of finding an opening to a vital spot for the knock-out punch. There were plenty of openings, but Walsh stood the grueling until finally beaten down and out.

Attell showed better punching power than at any time in which he appeared in a local ring, but he had less defense work to do, and Walsh was an easy mark to hit, especially with the left jab to the face. Time after time Attell swung his head back with a succession of those wicked jabs, and each time he drew more blood. Then when Walsh's left side was unprotected, he would cross the right over and rock the little fellow's head.

After that first round Walsh fought against great odds, but he never faltered. He tried hard to get to Attell, but the latter was too big in the first two or three rounds Attell had Walsh backing away, but after that Walsh kept coming in. He swung hard at times, but never landed a blow, leaving himself open to Abel's counter, which was sure to come in a hard left, followed by a wicked right—sometimes by a perfect shower of blows.

Attell loomed up big beside Walsh, and his strong right hand, the Boston boy. All reports against Attell's condition seem to be unfounded, and he took a few more blows than a rough training bout.

TURK SHOWS STRONG.

The terrible Turk's awkwardness almost lost him the decision to George Brown at the end of ten rounds in the second preliminary. The Turk landed two blows to one of Brown's, but they were mostly wild swings that landed about the head and shoulders.

On the other hand Brown landed his blows cleanly, and in the fifth round body punches in the last two rounds, and his aggressiveness.

The fight men have been called a draw for the Turk had the best of the early rounds. He brought Brown to his knees in the first round by a stiff left to the head, and in the fifth bloodied his nose with another left. Toward the last of the fight Brown got wise to the fact that the right up-percut to the body was effective and sent in many hard blows. However, as a whole, Brown did not show up as well as expected. The Turk was in no wise hurt or exhausted.

At the end of the fight the Turk

You Will Like It

As the rolling snowball that grows with ever increasing volume with each succeeding revolution, has been the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, for over fifty years. Year after year the demand for it has increased by greater and still greater bounds, necessitating frequent increase in factory capacity.

That's evidence conclusive that the peculiar rich flavor, which is preserved by the Ghirardelli process of preparation, pleases and that's why we say YOU will like it.

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

BRICKLAYERS
WAGING WAR.

WANT TO MAKE CAPITAL OUT OF
LONG BEACH COLLAPSE.

Report of the State Conference of Bricklayers and the Masons' International Union Gives Wrong Impression-Why the Working Delusion is Trying to Prevent the Use of Concrete in Construction.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 7.—[To the Editor of the Times:] The report of the conference of the State Conference of Bricklayers and the Masons' International Union, which was held at Long Beach, has been published in the Times of Dec. 6.
It contains a very wide-spread and misleading statement about the position of the bricklayers.

The committee in this report refer to the cone shape appearance of the columns in the lower story at the point of breaking, and state that this failure was due to both spalling or crumbling, when the fact of the case is, that these columns broke owing to the fact that they had not sufficient reinforcement of steel and hundreds of tons of concrete fell upon the broken points of these columns at a distance of from one to four stories. The terrific impact of this mass was sufficient to grind off the corners of these broken columns and run the corners to the shape noticed by this committee. As these columns stood right in the middle of the debris, it seems as though they had possessed of intelligence would have recognized the cause of the grinding of the corners and would not have attributed it to crumbling.
The fact that these columns were not absolutely crushed to the earth, is a tribute to the strength of concrete,
and it is amusing to think that this intelligent committee did not recognize this fact.

Summon up the matter therefore,
but one conclusion can be arrived at
and that is the cause of the accident, and this conclusion is reinforced by the opinion of every expert who visited and examined the ruins: first, that the reinforcement in the pillars, girders and floor slabs was entirely insufficient; secondly, that owing to the use of hollow tile side walls carried no weight; and thirdly, and most important of all, that the unprotected green concrete was bound to collapse under the weight placed upon the various beams. It must be borne in mind that this is not the first failure under this peculiar system of construction. The papers today contain the account of the collapse of the Eastman Kodak Company's building at Rochester, New York, and it is not long since that the famous Hotel Biltmore developed the similar weaknesses.

DEAF MOURN
THEIR DEAD.

TOUCHING TRIBUTE TO MEMORY
OF THOMAS WIDD.

Funeral of Their Leader and Friend
Is Attended by Many Who, Like Himself, Hear Not for Speech.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 7.—[To the Editor of the Times:] The funeral of Thomas Widd, which was held yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's Cathedral, was a touching and impressive service. The large number of people who attended the funeral, including many of the deaf, was a testimony to the high regard in which Mr. Widd was held by his friends and the community.

Deep grief that had no audible expression was shown yesterday in the faces of a large number of the deaf mutes of Los Angeles, at the bier of the late Thomas Widd as a last mark
of respect to one who, though deaf, had been a leader among them and who in his long residence here had done much to make their lives happy.

Impressive to a high degree was the funeral service in the afternoon at St. Paul's Cathedral, in the parish house of which for a number of years
Mr. Widd had conducted Sunday classes for the deaf. The large company of friends in attendance included many persons of normal speech and hearing, as well as half a hundred to whom those gifts have been denied and who, through their common afflic-tion, were drawn closer to the man in whose life, had been to a teacher and a guide to a better and more cheerful existence.

The beautiful Episcopal service for the dead was conducted by Bishop Dunne, assisted by Dean Wilkins.
For the benefit of those who could not hear the reading of the scriptural lesson and the burial service, the words of comfort were translated into the sign language by young women whose swiftly flying fingers, graceful gestures and expressive countenances conveyed to the minds of their brothers and sisters the full text and meaning of the ceremony.

In the same manner were the words
and the rhythm of the funeral hymns interpreted to those who could not hear the sweet voices of the choir nor the melody of the organ. Mostly by movements of the body and of the hands and arms were the time and the inspiring words of "Nearer, My God, To Thee," and "Lead Kindly Light," interpreted to those who are denied the sweetness of all music, but so impressed were they by these messages of hope and of the loss of one long dear to them that they plainly displayed their great sorrow.

At the close of the service the casket,
covered with handsome floral offerings,
was conveyed to the vestibule of the church and friends had the opportunity to gaze for the last time on the features of the man who in his sixty-seven years of life, afflicted as he was,
had done much to make the lives of his fellow beings, interment was at Roseade, whether the remains were followed by a goodly number of relatives and acquaintances, including members of the Los Angeles Deaf Association, in which Mr. Widd had been active.

DEATH OF MRS. MESSMORE.

Wife of Second Street Restaurant Man
Passes After Twenty-One Years'
Residence.

Mrs. Frank Messmore, wife of the proprietor of the Chicago restaurant
of West Second street, died yesterday morning, aged 59. She had lived here twenty-one years.

She leaves her mother, Mrs. Rice, who has just passed her ninety-sixth birthday. She also leaves a widow and one son. Her illness was of only a few days' duration.

CHURCH CHRISTMAS SALE.

Women of the First Congregational Church will hold a Christmas sale at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. G.
Brainerd, No. 1661, Orange street, at this afternoon. A short talk on "How We Saw Palestine" will be given by Mrs. E. P. Bosbyshell, and a programme of music has been arranged.
Fancy articles and dolls and refreshments will be on sale under the direction of Mrs. E. P. Saitorn, chairman, assisted by Misses J. C. Hamilton,
John Crowder, Balch, Hunter and C.
D. Jones.

GAS KILLS THIS MAN.

Louis Cugnier died from gas asphyxiation in his room at No. 966 Summit street yesterday morning. His wife,
an employee of the Empire Laundry,
had gone to work, and left Cugnier
in the room. When people in the house broke open the door two hours later
the place was full of gas, and Cugnier lay on the bed fully dressed. No motivation for suicide is known, and it is believed by his wife that the man had turned on the gas when the pressure was being tested, and that it had been fatal to the man. Cugnier died on the operating table of the Receiving Hospital.

LOOK FOR BOOM
IN YUMA TOWN.

COMMERCIAL BODIES JOIN FOR COMMUNITY'S GOOD.

Arrangements Are Made for Amicable Consolidation of Rival Publicity Organizations—Plan for the Manufacture of Gas from Crude Oil
Is in Prospect in That City.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
YUMA (ARIZ.) Dec. 6.—In preparation for the great boom that is expected to hit Yuma coincident with the construction of the Laguna dam on the Colorado, her citizens are getting together for the good of the town. For months there have been rival publicity organizations, respectively termed Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce. Arrangements now are being made for an amicable consolidation of the two bodies.

On January 4 will be held a special city election, to pass upon the granting of a gas franchise to Sen. Harley of San Bernardino, who proposes to put in a plant for the manufacture of gas from crude oil. Frank A. Tuley of Riverside and W. Wilcox of Colton, were late visitors to Yuma and are understood to be interested with
Mr. Harley in the enterprise.

At present there are no excursion or round-trip rates in effect on the railroads between California and Arizona.
The Yuma Board of Trade has made an official request that the Southern Pacific make special round-trip rates from Los Angeles.

Hundreds of boxes of oranges, lemons and grape fruit have been shipped by express in the past few weeks to California points from Yuma. About $5 a box was returned from the orange shipments and a little less from the grapefruit. The lemon trade is especially fine this year. Samples of well-ripened lemons of good flavor have been exhibited in Yuma that weighed twenty-five ounces and that were twelve inches in circumference.

The Southern Pacific is preparing for the erection at Yuma of a clubhouse for its employees, to cost about $15,000 and to be a duplicate of that
at Tucson.

YUMA NOTES.

At El Paso last week the Southern Pacific lost two damage suits instituted by F. G. Allen and John Morris,
based upon injuries received by them
in the Yuma Railroad yards. Allen, who lost an arm, was given $12,500
damages and Morris, who was injured
internally $5000. Later the Morris
judgment was set aside by the court
on the ground of insufficient evidence.

W. N. Earhart, 56 years old, was run down Monday by a special train
on the California side of the river. He was very deaf and failed to hear the special which followed close after the limited. He lived with his son, an employee at the Yuma Indian School, and
had, also a daughter, resident in Los
An.

Last week near Gila Bend, the firing
of a miscellaneous lot of torpedoes and fuses caused the destruction of the caboose of a freight train. E. C. Carson, a brakeman, who attempted to put
out the fire, was badly burned and
only sharp work saved a second caboose and other cars of the train from destruction.

Alex Swift, and Salvador Angelo, two
cowboys, received a $20 bounty from Yuma county on presentation of the
eight-foot skin of a mountain lion.
The men had caught the lion by the
novel plan of roping him in a tree
where he had taken refuge after maintaining two valuable dogs.

An exclusive franchise has been granted to Charles Meadows and Will Huck for the construction and occupation of an automobile road along the California side of the Colorado River between Yuma and the Laguna damsite. The operators expect to control the travel to the dam by putting on
motor cars that will do the twelve
miles of distance in twenty minutes.

After three weeks of slow digging,
scooping for itself a channel down the
shallow Colorado, the great clamshell
dredger that was built in Yuma has reached its working ground opposite the current gate of the Imperial canal system. After cutting a connection between the river and the gate, it is understood that the dredger will dig
its way into the canal itself, closing
the gap behind it and thence being used to deepen and enlarge the great waterway.

The farmers of the Yuma Valley
have formed a trust and refuse to sell hay at a less price than $12 a ton.
Sunday, November 25, was the coldest day experienced in Yuma for twenty years, the thermometer dropping to 31 deg.

A chapter of the order of the Eastern Star has been chartered in Yuma.
Guadalupe Gonzales, for many years
a resident of Yuma, has gone to Tuc-son to stay with relatives, hoping the change may be of benefit to her health. She has been ailing, though to only a slight degree, for several months, but she denies that her indisposition proceeds from the weight of her 192 pounds.

ESCAPE IN NIGHTDRESS.

Fire destroyed a cottage occupied by
J. Graff at No. 322 South Bonnie Brace street yesterday morning. The family had to run for their lives and escaped in their night clothes. At the time the flames started they were all fast asleep. A defective wiring or a gas heater—the exact cause could not be learned—started the fire. It had a good start by the time the department arrived and burned the house
nearly to the ground. The house had been vacant for some time, and Graff
moved in only a few weeks ago.

One Way of Pairing Off.

A number of years ago at a small town in Maine an important local
election was to take place, and there
was strong rivalry between the Republicans and Democrats. Old Hiram
Morse, the blacksmith, was a strong
Democrat, but many of the farmers
were Republicans.

On the morning of the election a
farmer came in to have his horse shod.
The blacksmith said to him: "We're both busy. You're a Republican and I'm
a Democrat. Let's pair off. We'll neither of us vote, and it will amount
to the same as if we both went to
the polls."

This was agreed upon. After the election it was found that Morse
had paired off with five Republican
farmers.—(Boston Herald.)

The Southern Pacific is preparing
for the erection at Yuma of a club-
house for its employees, to cost about $15,000 and to be a duplicate of that
at Tucson.

YUMA NOTES.

At El Paso last week the Southern Pacific lost two damage suits instituted by F. G. Allen and John Morris,
based upon injuries received by them
in the Yuma Railroad yards. Allen,
who lost an arm, was given $12,500
damages and Morris, who was injured
internally $5000. Later the Morris
judgment was set aside by the court
on the ground of insufficient evidence.

W. N. Earhart, 56 years old, was
run down Monday by a special train
on the California side of the river. He was very deaf and failed to hear the
special which followed close after the
limited. He lived with his son, an employee at the Yuma Indian School, and
had, also a daughter, resident in Los
An.

Last week near Gila Bend, the firing
of a miscellaneous lot of torpedoes and
fuses caused the destruction of the caboose of a freight train. E. C. Carson, a brakeman, who attempted to put
out the fire, was badly burned and
only sharp work saved a second caboose and other cars of the train from
destruction.

Alex Swift, and Salvador Angelo, two
cowboys, received a $20 bounty from Yuma county on presentation of the
eight-foot skin of a mountain lion.
The men had caught the lion by the
novel plan of roping him in a tree
where he had taken refuge after maintaining two valuable dogs.

the travel to the dam by putting on
motor cars that will do the twelve
miles of distance in twenty minutes.

After three weeks of slow digging,
scooping for itself a channel down the
shallow Colorado, the great clamshell
dredger that was built in Yuma has
reached its working ground opposite the
current gate of the Imperial canal sys-

tween the river and the gate, it is understood that the dredger will dig
its way into the canal itself, closing
the gap behind it and thence being
used to deepen and enlarge the great
waterway.

ESCAPE IN NIGHTDRESS.

Fire destroyed a cottage occupied by
J. Graff at No. 322 South Bonnie
Brace street yesterday morning. The
family had to run for their lives and escaped in their night clothes. At the time the flames started they were all
fast asleep. A defective wiring or a
gas heater—the exact cause could not
be learned—started the fire. It had a good start by the time the department arrived and burned the house
nearly to the ground. The house had been vacant for some time, and Graff
moved in only a few weeks ago.

One Way of Pairing Off.

A number of years ago at a small
town in Maine an important local
election was to take place, and there
was strong rivalry between the Republicans and Democrats. Old Hiram
Morse, the blacksmith, was a strong
Democrat, but many of the farmers
were Republicans.

On the morning of the election a
farmer came in to have his horse shod.
The blacksmith said to him: "We're
both busy. You're a Republican and I'm
a Democrat. Let's pair off. We'll
neither of us vote, and it will amount
to the same as if we both went to
the polls."

This was agreed upon. After the election it was found that Morse
had paired off with five Republican
farmers.—(Boston Herald.)

PUBLIC SERVICE

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The annual report of the Department of Buildings was made yesterday and it shows 5553 permits issued, representing an outlay of $15,502,446.

The City Attorney has been asked to advise the Board of Public Works as to its powers in conducting an investigation of the gas famine in this city.

The Board of Public Works will make a personal inspection of several streets which are to be improved and will endeavor to save the fine old trees which stand in the line of curbs and gutters.

Five firemen were dropped from the rolls at yesterday's meeting of the Commission. Insubordination is to be promptly stamped out.

The Fire Commission yesterday purchased four combination chemical and hose wagons at a cost of $3800.

George Seligert, a 15-year-old lad, was before Judge Wilbur in the Juvenile Court, yesterday, on the charge of stealing bicycles. The court is considering what shall be done with him.

Antan Besold, the alleged murderer of Claude Besold in Temescal Canyon, was held without bail for the Superior Court, yesterday, by Justice Young.

Fifty alleged violations of the billboard ordinance will be pushed to trial by the City League and a test complaint will probably issue from the City Prosecutor's office today.

Members of the Sanchez family were arraigned in the Police Court and held in $1000 bail each for trial on charges of grand larceny.

Al Levy pleaded guilty to having more game in his possession than the law allows, and paid $50 fine yesterday in the Police Court.

AT THE CITY HALL.
MANY MILLIONS FOR BUILDINGS.

INSPECTOR BACKUS MAKES HIS ANNUAL REPORT.

City Gains Almost Three Million Dollars Over Last Year's Record. Improvements Suggested for Adoption Here—Would Give a Fine Test to Reinforced Concrete Buildings.

The annual report of the Department of Buildings was made yesterday by Chief Inspector of Buildings J. J. Backus to the Board of Public Works.

The report covers the fiscal year ending November 30.

The total number of permits issued was 5553, and the total cost of the buildings authorized by these permits is $15,502,446.

There were erected nine Class A steel frame structures, costing $2,524,500. Sixteen reinforced concrete structures were built, costing $1,570,400, and there were 248 Class B and C structures of brick, costing $2,684,427.

Of Class D, frame buildings, there were 5462, and they cost $7,748,563. There were twenty-six municipal buildings erected, at a cost of $46,287.

The city gained twenty-six churches, costing $192,753.

There were 550 sheds and stables built, costing $142,568, and permits were issued for twenty-four foundations, costing $85,729. Brick alterations to the number of 294 were made at a cost of $678,413, and 2024 frame alterations cost $688,518. The demolitions numbered 13, and the cost of the same amounted to $15,645.

The report shows an increase in valuation of buildings for last year of $2,357,262. Last year's report showed building to the amount of $18,615,083.

The receipts of the Building Department's office for the year amounted to $21,223.95, and the expenditures were $27,743.21.

The report says: "The following figures will serve to illustrate the tremendous growth of our city. During the year just closed we have erected a total of 174,646 feet, or about thirty-three miles of buildings. These figures represent the frontage only and do not include additions or out-buildings, such as barns, stables or sheds."

In this report Mr. Backus recommends the appointment of a permanent Board of Appeals to which all questions not covered by the ordinance could be referred and decided at once, as it is impossible to frame any ordinance to cover all contingencies which arise, or, if it were found inadvisable to do this, then the Board of Public Works and the Chief Inspector of Buildings should be given some discretionary powers which they might exercise under certain conditions.

The suggestion is also made that the time has arrived when the city must install as an absolute necessity a laboratory for testing the various kinds of material used in the construction of buildings.

Another interesting suggestion is that the city make provision for the erection of a small building of reinforced concrete, made of local materials, to be given a fire test, so that it might be determined with some degree of accuracy whether the conditions would be in case a great fire should sweep the city. In this connection the report of the Chief Inspector says:

"We confess that there exists in our minds a considerable uncertainty as to what might happen if the concrete as constituted when mixed according to our ordinance was subjected to an intense heat and then had steam water turned upon it under a very strong pressure."

"This uncertainty arises from the fact that our sand, gravel and rock are of a granite formation, and as we know granite itself will not stand any great heat we would therefore very much like to determine definitely just what it would do under the conditions named."

The report calls attention to the improvement in the matter of fire protection in the larger buildings, and states that since April of this year permits have been issued for 130 new fire escapes, the greater portion of which have been placed upon old buildings where no escapes existed before, or, if they did exist, were totally inadequate.

The Chief Inspector asks for an increase in the force of his department by adding at least three more inspectors, one more man for inspection of reinforced concrete and masonry, one for general inspection, and one fire inspector with a special knowledge of theaters and other public places.

PERMITS GRANTED.
FIRE COMMISSION'S WORK.

At yesterday's meeting of the Fire Commission permission was granted to Frank M. Knapp to install and operate an electric motor for the Novelty Laces and Copper Works, at No. 131 South Fremont avenue.

The commission granted a permit to George T. Pratt for an electric motor for a coopering plant at No. 137 East First street.

The commission granted a permit to maintain a steam boiler at No. 318 South Broadway, where it has a vulcanizing plant. Permission was given to Victor Pratt to install a steam heating plant at No. 619 West First street.

Driscoll got a permit to run a gasoline engine at his electrotype foundry, No. 225 East First street.

The application of George Heyer for an electric motor for a paint factory at No. 1318 Hobson street was withdrawn without prejudice.

The case of H. Hess, who wants to establish a planing mill at No. 260 West First street, was continued on his present temporary site in Highland Park—was continued one week.

SAVE THE TREES.
ENGINEER SEEKS ADVICE.

The City Engineer yesterday afternoon referred to the Board of Public Works the cases of several of the city streets on which improvement is planned but which have fine rows of trees directly in line of the curbs or gutters. He asks advice as to whether the trees shall be saved or shall be sacrificed to conventionalization in street curb lines. Among the streets to be improved on which there are fine old trees is Council, between Reno and Panning; Barber, between Thomas and Eastlake; Hays, between Highland Park, Compton avenue, between Vernon and Slauson avenues; Forty-ninth, between Normandie and Builing avenues; Glassell street, between Reno and Panning. The Board decided to make a tour of investigation, and wherever possible it will arrange to save the trees.

Drainage for Euclid Heights.
The City Engineer yesterday recommended to the Board of Public Works that a large culvert be built for drainage under Euclid street, between Euclid street and Euclid Heights preparatory to the street improvements which are to be started on both of these thoroughfares. He recommends that this culvert be built by funds raised on an assessment district, but the Board wishes the district limited to a small area, and the final disposition of the case is held for a report from Assessment Clerk Schreiber.

The Gas Troubles.
The Board of Public Works has asked the City Attorney to advise it as to its authority to investigate the gas shortage in this city and the liability of the gas company for the troubles and menace to health arising from this shortage. City Gas Inspector Read has been gathering data to present to the board in case it finds it has legal power to make an investigation. "The question arises as to whether the gas company has exercised due discretion in providing an adequate reserve supply," said President Anderson yesterday. "There is no doubt that the gas shortage has been the means of great annoyance and suffering, and it has also been a menace to health. We shall be guided by the advice of the City Attorney as to what investigation shall be made."

Monthly Aqueduct Report.
The second monthly report of the Bureau of the Los Angeles Aqueduct was sent to the Board of Public Works yesterday. The monthly statement shows that $450,223.50 was the amount of funds available, and that the expenditures were $23,723.40, with bills outstanding approximated at $1000. Detailed reports were received from the aqueduct parties in the field. The work has been confined to running preliminary lines. No details of general interest are found in these sub-

Your big stick on my pate
At a very recent date
Almost caused a sudden hate,
Teddy dear,
To conciliate the Jap,
You have given me a rap,
And my polioes a slap,
Which I fear.

The brown men o'er the sea
Are agitating me,
And you seem to fall to see,
It hurts me.

Just because they skinned the Bear,
And took almost all his hair,
They think they quite compare
With the Free.

And they seem to think their fate
At a very early date,
Is to surely dominate
Our great sea.

So they're crowding Uncle Sam
And so very near I am,
That they sent their first hard slam
Right at me.

Now my much respected Teddy,
You just keep a little steady,
And don't be quite so ready
To lose your head.

Postponement of the gift-gathering is sure to bring disappointment. Late comers not only find the crowds too dense for comfort, but the assortments so depleted that it is often necessary to substitute something that the recipients care little or nothing for. Nothing whatever to be gained by waiting.

Don't be dreading the "ordeal" of taking the children through Toyland. We've arranged the Toy and Doll departments on the third floor, where there is plenty of room and light and perfect ventilation—where you can not only have elbow room but a chance to sit down and enjoy yourself while the youngsters amuse themselves.

Monday's Most Important Sales

Particulars of which will appear in Sunday's papers:

Women's and children's wool underwear—broken lines of the finest goods Germany produces—at less than half price.
Women's and children's hosiery, specially priced.
Sale of black silks at a quarter to a third under value.
Table linens at a third or more under regular.

An Ideal Present for a MAN
The Novels of PAUL DE KOCK

Major Pendennis's remark that he had read nothing of the novel kind for thirty years except Paul de Kock, who certainly made him laugh, is likely to remain one of the most famous of his testimonials. And indeed, Paul de Kock is likely to remain one of the most famous of his testimonials. And indeed, Paul de Kock is likely to remain one of the most famous of his testimonials.

Furs for Children

Dependable furs make gifts that will endure long after something less serviceable will have been forgotten. Here are some for children's use, of extra good quality, and better to give than any amount of trashy stuff.

Set (muff and neckpiece) of white Angora, neckpiece in flat shape, white lining, muff with back of white lambs' wool, finished with cord and white satin bow... $2
Imitation ermine set—flat neck scarf and muff... $2
Imitation ermine set, muff with clasp purse in top... $3.50
White lamb set—flat scarf with scalloped ends, silk and chenille ornaments, white satin lining, muff with silk cord and trimming... $2.25

Things to Give a Man

Some special prices on men's handkerchiefs of irreproachable quality.
Hemstitched Japanette silk, with initial, full size, 2 for 25c.
Of fine linen, hemstitched, with colored initial, 50c.
Of pure linen, initialed and hemstitched, 25c.
Pure linen, hemstitched, with one-quarter or half-inch hems, 20c, 25c, 35c to $1.
Fancy suspenders, in separate holiday boxes, from 50c to $2.50, and you don't pay all the money for the fancy box, either; the suspenders are qualities of which any man will be proud.
Stick pins, watch fobs, cuff buttons, studs—fine in grade, reasonable in price, and splendid to give a man.
Dress and driving gloves of the best makes. Give a certificate if you don't know the size and shade preferred.
Smoking jackets, lounging and bath robes, etc., in complete assortment now, all sizes and lengths.
Fancy golf and negligee or full dress shirts make good presents. In all probability our salesmen can tell you the size required, if you don't know.
Splendid underwear in all good makes, and textures suitable to this climate's requirements, practical and pleasing gifts.

Boxes of Ruchings

A most timely arrival of a large shipment of ruchings for 25c and 50c a box.
At 25c there are two styles of boxes to select from, each contains six different patterns of white ruching, in ample neck lengths.
At 50c there are three separate styles of boxes, each with six different patterns.
If you bought them by the yard they'd cost you anywhere from 25c to 50c a yard for every pattern, buying by the box you get the six different styles for the price of one.
Any woman who wouldn't be pleased to receive a box or two will be the exception to the rule.
